

Luxury Cotswolds Escapes at Golden Valley's Edge
Six Night All Inclusive Holidays from a private home in the Cotswolds
Exclusive Use groups 4-8

Indulge in a quintessential English experience, from the comfort of your own private home in the Cotswolds. Our six night package allows generous time to explore this breathtaking area of England, along with spending plenty of time relaxing over a novel or a glass of wine.

This package provides a more personalised alternative to luxury hotels, where guests can truly feel at home while immersing themselves into the quaint country life, so typical of this area.

Your team of four consists of husband and wife hosts (Joe & Ang) who will take care of your every need during your stay, along with providing daily chauffeured and guided tours of the local area. A talented private chef will prepare gourmet meals during your stay, paired with renowned European wines and a fully stocked bar available at all times.

Our Classic Itinerary has been handpicked to include a diverse range of tours to suit all interests.

Sunday: Private transfer from Kensington London or Heathrow Airport to the Cotswolds, Champagne welcome & delicious evening meal.

Monday: Visit the Roman town of Cirencester for a walking tour, and optional museum visit. Return for lunch. Optional afternoon wine tasting visit.

Tuesday: After lunch depart for Cotswolds villages tour - Burford & Bibury along with visiting an old weaver's mill.

Wednesday: A full day excursion to Bath - visit the famous Roman Baths before indulging in a wonderful lunch at a prestigious local restaurant, continue on to a walking tour of Bath's iconic landmarks, before enjoying some free time in the city.

Thursday: Join the chef for a cooking demonstration this morning. After lunch you will visit the Polo grounds where Harry & William play and witness a game of the quintessential English sport - Polo!

Friday: Visit Sudeley Castle and Gardens with a fascinating history which spans over 1000 years. Return for lunch. This afternoon challenge your fellow travellers & staff to a game of croquet on the lawn.

Saturday: Return to London or Heathrow Airport via private transfer.

All rooms are beautifully appointed and boast ensuite shower rooms.

This property is ideal for small groups of 4-8 guests.
