PLAN YOUR DREAM VACATION WITH CONFIDENCE

EXPERIENCE & LONGEVITY

As the largest North American tour operator sending visitors into Ireland and Scotland with nearly 90 years of continuous operation, CIE Tours has taken more than three million travelers on the vacation of their dreams. When you travel with CIE Tours, you can feel confident when planning, booking and traveling with us. We know our destinations inside and out and take care of every detail to ensure that your trip is stress free.

TRAVEL FLEXIBILITY

Book your vacation with peace of mind. Make a new booking with CIE Tours and rest easy knowing you may modify your travel plans up to 60 days before departure for as long as COVID-19 is still impacting international travel. Change to another destination, another itinerary or another departure date anytime through 12/31/22. And, for the ultimate flexibility, purchase our enhanced travel protection plan that allows you to cancel your travel plans for any reason, up until 24 hours before you leave. See cietours.com/flexibility for details.

HEALTH & SAFETY

CIE Tours has instituted comprehensive health and safety standards. We work closely with our local partners to ensure appropriate sanitizing, health protocols and physical distancing, all while maintaining our famous CIE Tours hospitality. Many of our partner relationships go back decades, and we only work with service providers that we are confident will consistently deliver upon our high standards.

Before You Arrive

Because rules and guidelines vary from country to country and are continually changing, before you travel, we will provide you with the most up-to-date information to ensure you are informed about protocols in your destination. You can always check our website for the most current information at cietours.com/travel-update.

Most airlines have developed industry-specific procedures including requiring flight attendants to wear masks, sanitizing all surfaces between flights and having seating configurations that allow for physical distancing. We recommend visiting your airline's website for specific information on their policies.

As one of the longest-standing tour operators in North America, CIE Tours is partnered with the leading tourism authorities, and operates at the highest levels of health and safety guidelines in the US and Europe. We are proud to work in conjunction with the following organizations and charters and operate in compliance with all local and international tourism certification guidelines.

The World Travel & Tourism Council (WTTTC's) SafeTravels Stamp recognizes implementation of strict travel and wellbeing protocols and standards.

CIE Tours is a proud member of the United States Tour Operators Association (USTOA). USTOA is dedicated to promoting integrity within the tour operator industry and stands behind members with a $1 Million Travelers' Assistance Program.

The TC "Tour Care" mark designates compliance with a consistent set of COVID-19 health and safety operating guidelines for the tourism industry, organized in conjunction with the Canadian Association of Tour Operators (CATO), the European Tourism Association (ETOA), and USTOA.

On the Road

For guests who elect to go on an escorted scheduled tour, the majority of our departures will be small groups, limiting the number of guests on tour to ensure a greater number of empty seats for guests to spread out comfortably. Look for the designation (SG) on individual tour dates to select your small-group departures. For those who prefer an even smaller group and more independence, we have an extensive offering of private driver and self-drive options. While specific protocols will vary from location to location, some general guidelines will be followed:

- The interiors of our coaches will be sanitized daily, including regular cleaning of high-touch areas and surfaces. Scheduled stops will facilitate frequent hand washing and hand sanitizer will be available at all times.
- 100% of airflow on coaches will come from circulation of fresh air from outside the vehicle.
- At hotels, guest rooms will be disinfected thoroughly between stays; and common areas such as lobbies, elevators, restaurants, and fitness centers will be cleaned continuously throughout each day.
- When visiting attractions, all appropriate local safety precautions will be followed, and guests may be rotated in smaller sub-groups when necessary.
- Social distancing will be incorporated in some form in most activities and visits. Teams are working hard to make this as seamless as possible, ensuring your comfort and security.

Our Team

Our tour directors are not only local experts with decades of experience, but are also trained to handle a variety of unexpected situations – including illnesses and emergencies. You can be confident your tour director will be thoroughly trained on enhanced hygiene and physical distancing procedures and will ensure that guests know what to expect every step of the way. If any issues arise, our expert teams on the ground have systems and protocols in place for your safety and have extensive local support to assist.

Our in-country operations and logistics team is on call 24/7. In Ireland alone we have 30+ staff focused on tour operations, who together represent over 500 years of experience with CIE Tours. This team, based in our Dublin office, is always connected and ready to assist our tour directors in the event of an emergency.

The Ireland "Safety Charter" check mark is displayed by tourism businesses who have committed to implement and uphold stringent guidelines for COVID-19 health procedures as developed by Fáilte Ireland, the National Tourism Development Agency Operators (CATO), the European Tourism Association (ETOA), and USTOA.

The UK industry-wide "We're Good to Go" mark provides full consumer confidence for operator adherence to government and public health COVID-19 guidance for businesses, attractions and destinations across the United Kingdom, in conjunction with VisitBritain.

CIE Tours is a member of ITOAI, the Incoming Tour Operators Association of Ireland, whose membership represents Ireland's premier inbound tour operators committed to the highest professional service and promotion of tourism standards for health, safety and sustainable tourism development in the destination of Ireland.

Dear Traveler,

At CIE Tours we are delighted to be back on the road, taking our guests with us to discover the treasures of Ireland, Britain, and beyond. We've all had abundant time to daydream about where to travel next. And now travel is back, and we're ready to bring you along!

Visiting Glendalough on our Irish Spirit tour, August 2021.

2022 is CIE Tours' 90th anniversary, the beginning of our 10th decade making travelers' dreams come true. We've been providing the highest quality vacations since 1932 – and loving every minute of it. Our reputation for security, reliability and satisfaction is unparalleled.

There is much to anticipate in 2022. We continue to offer the largest selection of Ireland itineraries; and new this year, each of these popular itineraries is available as a group tour, with a private driver, or as a self-drive (read more about your options on page 14). We've got a travel style to suit every taste – Guided Vacations (our most popular), Group Vacations, Custom Private Driver experiences and Independent Adventures.

We have also introduced four new Britain tours that will bring you closer to the people, culture, and history of this captivating region:

- Consider our Gems of Northern England (pg. 82) to discover the romantic Lake District, the scholar's life in Oxford and Cambridge, and York's medieval charms
- Or our Gems of Southern England (pg. 84), to journey through the palaces, castles, cathedrals and gardens of England's historic south
- Our 14-day English Odyssey (pg. 88) combines these tours to allow you to really explore the England of your dreams on a sweeping tour
- Or take a 14-day Highlights of Britain (pg. 90) to see Devon and Cornwall in England, the medieval heritage of Wales and Scotland's delights

As the largest specialist operator into Ireland and Britain from North America, we offer competitive prices, special access, and exclusive experiences to our guests. Our All-In Inclusive Advantage means every experience and most meals are included in the price, so you won't pay for hidden extras along the way. This also means our tour directors don't spend time selling you extra services: they focus instead on delivering your trip of a lifetime, giving you all the local lore and history of your destination and facilitating friendship and fun along the way. We're dedicated to providing you with a journey that is as safe as it is enjoyable, so we have worked hard to ensure a comprehensive set of health and safety protocols on every tour.

Our teams in the US, Ireland, and Britain are ready to connect you with the stories, people, and experiences you've been waiting for. It's time we all get back out there and travel together. Whichever vacation you choose, we look forward to welcoming you with our famous CIE Tours hospitality.

YOUR INVITATION TO EXPLORE

Wide-open landscapes and incredible experiences await you, and now's the time to think about traveling abroad once again. Safely and responsibly, but still with that same sense of discovery and wonder.

Each day brimming with the same promise of fascinating characters, memorable landscapes, and unique adventures. Now more than ever you deserve a vacation, and we can't wait to help you plan your next adventure.

It's your journey.

Let us be your guide.

NEARLY NINE DECADES OF EXPLORING LEAVE A WELL- TRAVELED SOUL

We were born on the road, with roots in Ireland's national transit system. Early on, our trains and buses connected the cities, towns and villages of Ireland. But soon, we began imagining new connections, with fellow travelers far beyond our shores. In 1932, we founded CIE Tours International, and invited the world in.

We started with a handful of tours, crisscrossing the streets of Dublin, the castles of Kerry, and the valleys of Connemara. Over the years, we've helped more than three million guests enjoy the vacation of their dreams. And today, we continue to find new ways to share our love of travel, safely and comfortably. While our heart will always belong to the Emerald Isle, we now bring the spirit of Irish hospitality to more than 70 scheduled tour options across Ireland, Great Britain, Italy, Iceland and beyond.

SERVING YOUR EVERY NEED

While travel has changed over time, our commitment to exceptional service, value and comfort stays constant. Our guided coach tours are a perennial favorite, but our broad range of customized group and private driver vacation options mean you can also travel exactly the way you want. Your pace. Your plans. Your people. No matter where the road leads next, CIE Tours will always go the extra mile to provide our guests with the safe and memorable trip of their dreams.

Our commitment to excellence shines through in our 95%* guest satisfaction rate, the envy of the industry. In the outstanding value you find on every tour. And in the once-in-a-lifetime experiences that stay with you, long after your trip comes to an end.

“Our tour director left no stone unturned with his knowledge of the history of Ireland. He was personable and passionate about his job, paying attention to every detail and the needs of everyone. He sang, told stories and joked. Sights were beyond description – don't miss sheep herding on your visit!”

In Gaelic the word seanchaí means “storyteller”, keepers of ancient folklore who have acted as custodians of Irish history for centuries. In Welsh, it's cyfarwydd. And the English have their bards.

At CIE Tours, we are passionate about preserving the rich tradition of stories passed from person to person. Whether we are taking our guests to Ireland, Scotland or other destinations beyond our shores, our friendly guides keep history alive through the spirit of storytelling, transforming mere travel into an unforgettable journey.

As locals, our tour directors find the hidden gems other tours miss — the out-of-the-way places, local legends, untold history, and colorful characters that create lifetime memories for our guests.

They are also experts with the experience to make even the most complex travel logistics fade away. They and our team of more than 30 travel professionals in our Ireland and UK offices take care of every detail — your reservations, schedule, itinerary, even transportation. So you can sit back, relax and enjoy a safe, worry-free trip.

When the time is right to cross one more amazing destination off your bucket list, journey out with CIE Tours. Step by step our guides are ready to connect you with the stories, people and experiences that will live on long after you return home.

IT'S TIME TO TRAVEL... YOUR WAY

You may like your trip planned to the detail. Or maybe you're a born wanderer, happiest without a map. Perhaps you live for globe trotting with friends and family. Or maybe you prefer to go solo. No matter what type of travel suits you best, we're ready to make it even better. We're passionate about providing a superb travel experience, so each year we ask our guests to rate every aspect of our tours, from attractions to the all-important hotels where you end each day. Virtually all our hotels are four-star accommodations which often include unique settings like castles or manors.

For more than 30 years we've been asking our guests for their honest opinions, and we use this information to continually refine and improve our tours and reward our top partners. The annual CIE Tours Awards of Excellence have been a coveted achievement through Ireland and the UK, and the success of this constant feedback is evident in our 95% customer satisfaction rate.

Emma's primary occupation is as a mental health nurse, but since 2012 her love of both photography and the great outdoors has resulted in a stunning collection of images that document some of the wonders of Ireland.
