Why are we called Rabbie's?

People have mistakenly called us 'rabbits', 'rabbis', and a few things we dare not to say.

But there's a good reason why we're called Rabbie's. It's the affectionate nickname of Robert Burns, Scotland's most famous poet.

FAQs

What type of accommodation is included in a Rabbie's package? All accommodation providers used by Rabbie's are selected for their quality, value and friendliness. We offer centrally located B&B, independent and privately owned properties and 3-star hotels where we can.

NOTE: You need to book pre/post accommodation as the tours start early in the morning about 8am and finish early evening around 7pm on the last day.

Where do I find details of tours and itineraries? Full details of tours and latest itineraries are always available on the Rabbie's website. Updates on any changes made to tour schedules or itineraries will be made on tour pages. NOTE: All pricing on the Rabbie's website does NOT include accommodation or admissions to popular attractions (bookings in NZ they are included) Any specials or discounts advertised on the Rabbie's website are NOT available to NZ bookings.

Do you allow children on your tours? Yes, we welcome children aged 5 and above. We regret that we are unable to permit children under 5 years on our scheduled tours*. Children under 18 need to be accompanied by an adult.

*Additionally, we have age restrictions on certain tours where the content is not suitable for children i.e., some of those where we visit distilleries, breweries and vineyards. These include our tours of Italy & Switzerland (aged 15+ years) and a selection of UK tours (18+ years).

What's the maximum number of people I can book on a tour? We accept bookings for up to 8 passengers from any one party. For groups of 9+ passengers, we advise booking a private tour.

Will I receive any documentation before the tour? All your clients will need, is the booking reference number, and departure details which is sent to you at the time of booking via email.

Eurolynx Travel will send out full documentation up to 28 days prior to travel. This will include details of confirmed accommodation.
