Connect with the places

Can you hear the tapping of a woodpecker along the mist-shrouded shores of Loch Lomond? Or feel the gentle Cornish breeze prickling your skin as night falls across the starry harbour? When you discover the back roads, there's a new surprise waiting around every corner.

With us, you'll explore Europe's scenic side in a luxury minicoach, leaving the tourist trail far behind. Watch as sun-warmed lavender fields transform into tiny Provence villages, where time stands still (and the Calissons d'Aix almond-shaped candies are a must-try!). Or listen to the cicadas hum their midday song as a powdery Tuscan path leads to a rustic, centuries-old winery.

"...a small group of people and a tour that didn't go to the usual tourist destinations. The destinations were well presented and varied, very personalised, not at all commercialised. It was like travelling with friends and family."

Ada N, Corners of Cornwall

Connect with the people

Picture this: you're gathered around a table in a timeless Catalan courtyard, plates overflowing with vibrant tapas – crispy patatas bravas, salty jamón ibérico, and plump olives glistening with oil. You're clinking chilled glasses of Cava with newfound friends, laughter bubbling as you share tales of the day's adventures.

It's easy to connect on our small-group tours; conversations flow naturally, and friendships spark with every shared sip and story.

"We had the best group of guests and an amazing Tour Leader. The highlight was all the new friends we have made."

Lawrence V, Corners of Southern Ireland

Connect more personally

If you've ever wondered how to pour the perfect pint of Guinness (it's all in the angle!) or what the Scots really stow beneath their kilts, our passionately local Tour Leaders have all the answers. With a depth of knowledge no Google map could ever match – and a tale for every turn in the journey – they unlock the spirit of each location.

Putting you first every step of the way, our expert Tour Leaders connect you deeply and personally to their home countries. And as we travel in small groups, they'll be sure to include those special moments that excite and inspire you.

"Thanks to our Tour Leader, we not only saw the sights but truly experienced the heart and soul of each place we visited. This journey has left us with cherished memories and a deeper appreciation for the world around us."

Bruce H, Discover Portugal

thoughtfully selected accommodation

Where you stay isn't just a cosy spot to count sheep; it's a gateway to the spirit of a destination.

From drifting off to sleep beneath the ancient stone arches of a castle to waking to the distant chimes of a village church bell, we make sure you're fully immersed in the essence of every place – from start to finish.

Cooking and Nature Emotional Hotel, Alvados

Before dinner, try your hand at a traditional Portuguese cooking class, learning recipes you'll want to recreate long after you're home.

Tour: Discover Portugal

Les Villas d'Arromanches, Normandy

A short walk from the D-Day landing beaches, Les Villas d'Arromanches sits within a cluster of 19th-century Anglo-Norman villas, once built for holidaymakers of another era entirely. Spend your evening by the heated outdoor pool or wandering the hotel's own wooded orchard, then retire to one of just 28 rooms that still carry the charm of that old seaside style – with the beach, and the weight of history behind it, only 200 metres from your door.

Tour: La Belle France

The Mulberry Inn, Denbighshire

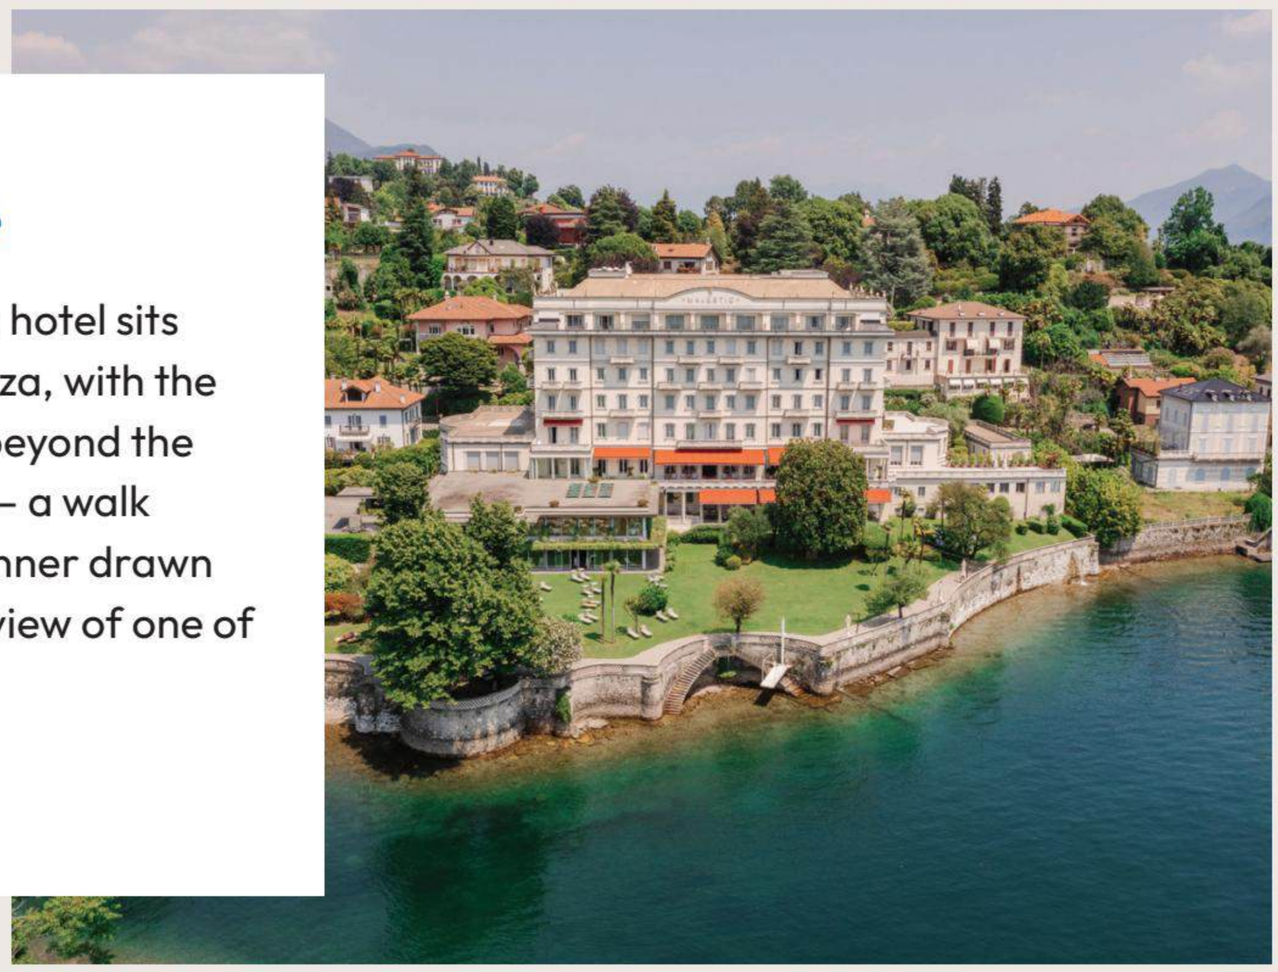

Tucked away in the heart of Wales' Ceiriog Valley, where the air is thick with the scent of wildflowers – The Mulberry Inn is a rustic bolthole brimming with effortless charm. Picture a crackling log fire, exposed-wood beams and deep, comfy armchairs – an irresistible invitation to unwind. It's also the perfect base to experience the soul-stirring magic of Eryri National Park (Snowdonia), with the aroma of hearty Welsh stews awaiting your return.

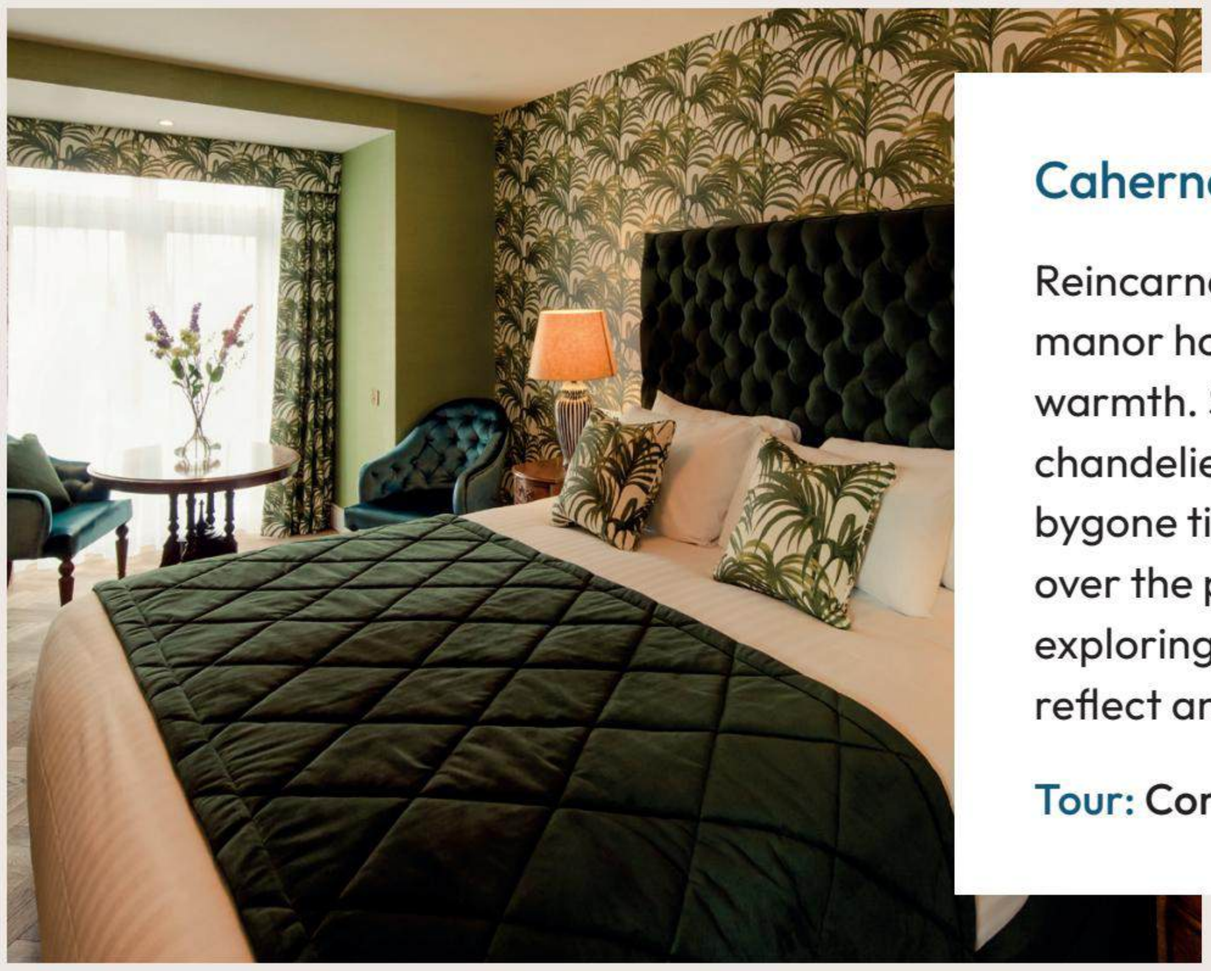

Tour: Highlights of Britain

Grand Hotel Majestic, Lake Maggiore

Built in grand Belle Époque style, this historic hotel sits right on the water's edge in Verbania-Pallanza, with the Borromean Islands rising from the lake just beyond the garden's palm trees. Days here move slowly – a walk through the grounds, a read by the water, dinner drawn from Piedmont's slow-food traditions, all in view of one of Italy's most storied lakes.

Tour: Italian Indulgence

Cahernane House Hotel, Killarney

Reincarnated as a lavish hotel, this elegant 19th-century manor house still radiates with its original Victorian warmth. Sunlight floods through glass atriums, antique chandeliers gleam, and watchful portraits tell a story of bygone times. When the sun sets, a quiet stillness settles over the private grounds, a welcome retreat after a day exploring Killarney's wild beauty. It's a place to relax, reflect and simply be.

Tour: Corners of Southern Ireland

We flow with the local rhythm of life, uncovering secrets and stories that reveal the heart of each destination – and making connections that last far beyond the final farewell.

Explore a family winery, four generations deep

In the heart of Burgundy, we'll turn up the driveway of Château de la Greffière, a winery that's belonged to the family for four generations. A tour leads us through vines and beneath the chateau's turrets, followed by a tasting of their wines. Then, in the shade of plane trees, we'll settle in for a picnic – with, naturally, a final glass of wine to savour.

Tour: Paris to Nice through Vineyards and Mountains

Unlock the secrets of Portugal's 'liquid gold'

Journey into the heart of rural Portugal, where terraced slopes meet winding river valleys. Here we'll visit a family-owned olive grove near Tomar to discover the secrets behind Portugal's 'liquid gold' olive oil, from its careful cultivation to the first pressing. Give in to the smooth, peppery taste as it dances on your tongue. Delicioso!

Tour: Discover Portugal

Get a taste of traditional Hungary at Hollókö village

Take a stroll through the centuries at the UNESCO World Heritage village of Hollókö, where each medieval street is a snapshot of Hungary's past. Buzzing with the living traditions of the native Palóc people, we'll even be welcomed into a local family's home to share a delicious lunch rich with regional flavours.

Tour: Explore Eastern Europe

Dive into Catania's vibrant fish market

Catania's fish market – La Pescheria – is a feast for all the senses. Picture glistening swordfish laid out on ice, the briny scent of the sea mingling with the boisterous calls of vendors, and the sight of spiky urchins and mussels piled high. Just a skip from the grand Piazza del Duomo, it's a real slice of Sicilian life.

Tour: Splendours of Sicily

Experience a real Scottish send-off in Dumfries

Our final night in the Scottish Borders is more than just a dinner; it's a joyful celebration of Scotland's spirit. Savour a taster of haggis alongside neeps and tatties, a true Scottish tradition, as the raw, resonant sound of bagpipes pulls at your heartstrings. This is a proper Scottish send-off that will stick with you long after the last notes fade.

Feed your curiosity

Step away from tourist traps and predictable menus. On a Back-Roads tour, food is an adventure in itself.

Tuscany, Italy

Roll up your sleeves in Albania

Spend an afternoon in the kitchen of a farm estate in the Albanian countryside, learning to make fërgesë, byrek and slow-roasted lamb with your own hands. Once the cooking's done, head out to the farm itself to pick the fresh fruits and vegetables that will round out your meal, before sitting down together to enjoy what you've made. It's a deeply warm, truly Albanian experience – food as connection, as generosity, as tradition.

Welcome to a land of sun-drenched vineyards and cool, dark bodegas – where we'll step inside a local winery for a very special sherry sampling, complemented by tapas bursting with Andalusian flavours.

Tour: Iberian Inspiration

Reveal the secrets of Tuscan cuisine

Shh... these culinary secrets have been kept under wraps for generations. Well, some of them anyway! We'll make our way through the gently rising hills and slender cypress trees of the Tuscan countryside for a masterclass in local cooking. Perhaps a pappa al pomodoro bread-and-basil filled tomato soup or a classic tagliatelle will be on the menu? Delizia!

Be guided by the best

Fluent in the language of local life, our Tour Leaders turn even the most ordinary of moments into extraordinary memories.

Local experts

Skilled linguists

Between them, our Tour Leaders speak more languages than you can shake a phrasebook at – over 25, to be precise, including excellent English! They're the smooth operators who keep your journey flowing, turning language barriers into bridges.

Uniquely talented

A delightfully quirky bunch bursting with unique talents, don't be surprised to be serenaded by a bagpipe or given an impromptu lesson on Viking ship burials. Sprinkling a little local stardust is their speciality!

Seasoned guides

Many different paths have steered our Tour Leaders to their calling. But with decades of experience under their belts, they share a common dedication: you. Unfailingly warm, passionate and caring – know that your comfort and enjoyment are their guiding principles.

"Our Tour Leader was not just a guide but a storyteller with a profound connection to the places we visited. Their insights into the history, culture, and hidden gems of each location brought everything to life in a way that no guidebook ever could."

Bruce H, Discover Portugal

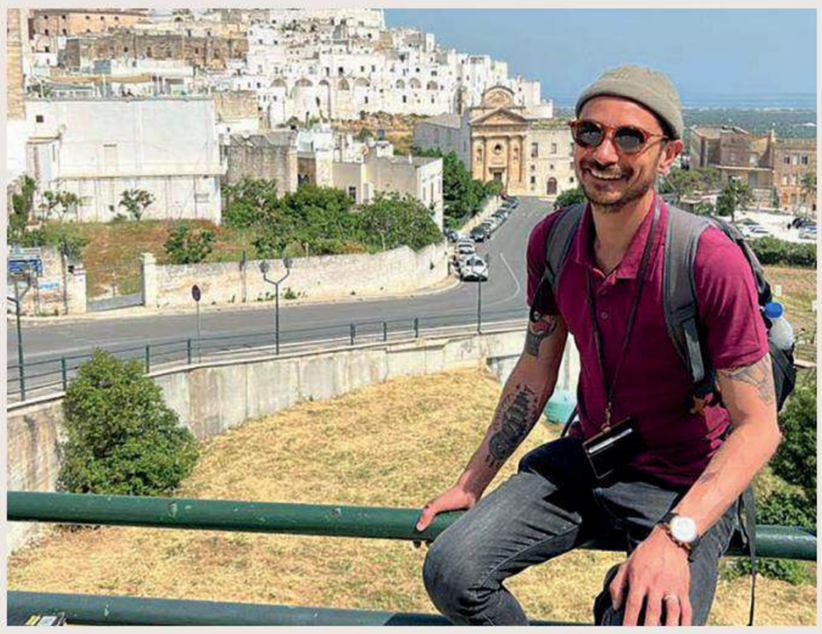

Maura Cahill

Can you share a highlight of one of your recent Emerald Isle tours?

"There were two gentlemen on tour that were bikers, so a big highlight for them was the Joey Dunlop Memorial Garden (which was not on the itinerary). They really appreciated going there and it was very special for them."

Nicholas Battaglia

What's your most memorable moment as a Tour Leader?

"I organised an aperitivo on the beach of Lake Maggiore with some wine, focaccia, cold cuts, and the truffles hunted the day before. It was not planned, and we had so much fun. It was so simple, but we stayed there laughing and having fun for hours."

Maxime Giron

How do you create authentic moments for your guests?

"To create an authentic moment, nothing beats chatting with locals to get the little story between the lines of the big history. And, on these occasions, language is never a problem because passion translates in every language!"

Signature Moments

Welcome to our treasury of travel secrets – we call them our ‘Signature Moments’.

Whilst our tours are full of unique accommodation and unexpected experiences, these truly special moments are designed to deeply immerse you further into local life.

Westman Islands, Iceland

Isle of Arran, Scotland

A story shaped by fire

Board the ferry to the remote Westman Islands and step ashore into the aftermath of a 1973 eruption that buried an entire town overnight. At the Eldheimar museum, an excavated house still sits beneath the volcanic rock exactly where it was found – walls, furniture and all – telling the story of that night with a quiet intensity no photograph could capture. Wander the streets that were rebuilt around it, then look up: above the town, the red cone of Eldfell still steams gently, a reminder that the ground here has never quite gone still. It’s one of Iceland’s strangest, most human stories, hiding at the edge of a nation better known for ice than fire.

Tour: Iceland: Sagas and Springs – brand new for 2027!

A wild side of Arran

Spend two nights on the Isle of Arran, where golden eagles circle overhead and stags graze the open moorland undisturbed. Join a local guide for a 4x4 safari across Clauchlands Hills, past the tumbling Glenashdale Falls and on to the ancient Giants Graves cairn.

Tour: Scotland: Lochs and Landscapes

“Safari on Arran was a highlight for both of us and also having two-night stays made it more enjoyable.”

Jennifer M

Keep an eye out for our Signature Moments icon throughout the brochure – every tour has one!

A buffalo's gift

Prepare your senses for a tasting of fresh, light mozzarella after wandering through a local farm in Paestum, where buffaloes happily swing their tails and graze on the fertile plains. Watch the cheesemakers at work as time-honoured techniques transform fresh buffalo milk into one of Italy's most celebrated delicacies, before savouring the results for yourself.

Tour: Enchanting Southern Italy

"Visits to buffalo cheese farm, lemon grove and ceramics studio were above expectations."

Rodney G

A British cuppa

Visit Britain's first tea plantation, Tregothnan Estate. Stroll through the estate's lush gardens, spotting favourite flowers and rare trees such as blossoming Camellia and the protected Wollemi Pine. Then, sample a selection of black teas along with traditional English cream tea!

Tour: Corners of Cornwall

"Tregothnan Estate. Beautiful place and very knowledgeable and friendly guide on the tour of estate."

Matthew M

A memory of monks past

Slumber where monks once pondered as we spend two nights at a former 17th-century monastery in the Pyrenees town of Boltaña. Set on the banks of the gently flowing Ara River, its rustic stone walls, soothing spa and grand restaurant offer the perfect place to reflect on those existential questions (how much tapas is too much tapas?).

Tour: Highlights of Northern Spain

"The hotel in the monastery was magical."

Valerie O

Sleep inside Carcassonne's walls

Spend two nights inside Carcassonne's medieval citadel, one of the world's best-preserved UNESCO World Heritage sites. Our hotel is one of just two within the walls, so once the day-trippers leave, the fortress becomes yours – its passageways quiet and ramparts glowing in the evening light.

Tour: Jewels of Southwest France

"The two days we spent in Carcassonne were the highlight for me... The hotel was exceptional."

Sveti Naum Springs, North Macedonia

Tour summary:

There is a corner of Europe that most travellers are yet to discover – where ancient bazaars still hum with craftspeople plying centuries-old trades, Byzantine monasteries cling to clifftops above impossibly blue lakes, and the welcome extended to strangers is genuine in a way that feels increasingly rare. Albania's white-walled hilltop towns, North Macedonia's vineyard-fringed valleys and Kosovo's layered old cities are each worth the journey alone.

Signature Moment:

An evening among the vines - On the outskirts of Skopje, spend an unhurried evening at Kamnik Winery, touring the vineyards, learning about North Macedonia's ancient winemaking traditions, and sitting down to dinner.

Tour highlights:

- Drift between the towering limestone walls of Matka Canyon as the river carries you deeper into the rock – past Vrelo Cave and its subterranean chambers.
- Glide through the crystal-clear springs of Sveti Naum by boat, a centuries-old monastery.
- Learn to prepare traditional Albanian dishes in a beautiful agrotourism estate's outdoor kitchen before heading out to pick the fresh fruits and vegetables to accompany your meal.

A story shaped by fire - Board the ferry to the remote Westman Islands and step ashore into the aftermath of a 1973 eruption that buried a town overnight. Travelling solo with Back-Roads

Travelling solo with Back-Roads is a rewarding way to explore the world. It gives you the freedom to follow your curiosity and embrace new experiences, while opening the door to new friendships along the way.

You'll join a small group of like-minded explorers, and a Tour Leader who helps everyone feel right at home.

With a maximum of 18 guests, it's easy to get to know your fellow travellers naturally whether they're travelling solo, as a couple or with friends. Before long, shared meals and conversations turn strangers into familiar faces.

Your single supplement, explained

As a solo traveller, you'll pay a 25% single supplement for the privacy of your own room and the comfort of a double bed all to yourself. We've kept it as low as we can, so you don't pay more than necessary for the independence of travelling solo. And unlike some travel companies, we never put solo guests in single beds or smaller rooms – you'll enjoy the same thoughtfully chosen accommodation as everyone else.

Lasting memories, made together

Whether you're travelling solo for the first time or you're a seasoned solo traveller, you'll be welcomed by a Tour Leader who gets to know you and a group of fellow travellers who soon feel like friends. Our Tour Leaders are always on hand to share local recommendations, answer questions and make sure everyone feels included. You may arrive solo, but you'll leave with memories and friendships that last long after the tour ends.

"I've not done a tour like this before, certainly not as a solo traveller, but because it was a small group I was included and made welcome. I plan to travel again with Back-Roads."

Louise R, Discover Portugal

"Our Tour Leader's experience and knowledge was fantastic – he gave us a glimpse of British history and showed us all the highlights of the back roads. As a solo traveller, I felt very safe and well looked after from start to finish."

Margaret D, Highlights of Britain

Frequently asked questions

Travelling with us

I have some health issues. Will this be a problem?

If you can manage your health issue(s) without needing additional care or facilities, and they do not present a risk to others, this is unlikely to be a problem. You should be fit enough to walk for up to four hours during a walking tour (approximately two to four kilometres), climb stairs in traditional-style hotels (many without lifts or ground-floor rooms), use a shower over the bath, and get on and off boats independently. If you have any mobility concerns, we'll need a quick self-assessment to check the tour will be suitable. For further information please check our Terms and Conditions (under the 'Dietary, Health and Special Requirement' section), contact our Customer Service team or your travel agent.

How much driving can I expect?

We keep our minicoach time to a minimum, and when we do drive, we take the most beautiful route wherever possible. Of course, some days involve longer stretches, but we aim for no more than four hours behind the wheel. Think of it as a moving postcard!

Will I have free time to explore independently?

Absolutely, every tour includes free time. If you'd rather stay active than slow down, your Tour Leader can recommend everything from scenic hikes and coastal walks to local markets, cycling routes and hidden viewpoints. Prefer a slower pace? They also know the best spots to linger over a coffee in a bustling square or enjoy a long lunch with a view.

Our accommodation

Do your hotels have lifts (elevators)?

Our thoughtfully selected accommodation is full of charm and historic details. For this reason, most hotels don't have lifts.

What star rating are your hotels?

You'll stay in 3- and 4-star accommodation – including elegant country inns, grand town centre hotels and even the odd castle! We prioritise quality and local character over official ratings, but rooms will always come with en suite bathrooms.

Will I share a room if I'm travelling alone?

We don't pair solo travellers for room sharing – instead you'll have your own room and a double bed all to yourself for a 25% single supplement on all our tours.

Can you arrange pre- and post-tour accommodation?

Yes, we can arrange extra nights in your arrival or departure city. Spending a few extra days in your starting city is a great way to explore. Since most of our tours finish in the early evening, we recommend flying home the next day, just to be safe. For further details, please contact our Customer Service team or your travel agent.

Your peace of mind

Are your tours always guaranteed to run?

We usually guarantee a tour when we have at least seven guests booked. To check, find the tour you're interested in on our website, then click on the 'Check Prices & Book' button and look out for the 'G' icon. Our Customer Service team or your travel agent will also be able to help.

What is and isn't included in a Back-Roads tour?

These are included in the overall price:

- Selected breakfasts, lunches and dinners
- Entrance fees to sites listed within the itinerary

Costs that are not covered include:

- Airfares
- Transfers, unless specified in the listed inclusions
- Meals not specified in the listed inclusions
- Driver/Tour Leader gratuity (given at your discretion)
- Social drinks
- Personal items
- Incidental expenses (such as hotel room service charges)
- Laundry costs
- Shipping charges for the return of purchases made
- Charges for the return of property lost on tour
- Pre- and post-tour accommodation

How much luggage can I bring?

As we travel in minicoaches, luggage space is limited. You can bring one piece of main luggage of a standard size of no more than 158cm (when the length, width and height is added together) and weighing no more than 20kg, as well as one small carry-on of no more than 70cm (when the length, width and height is added together).

If you have more than this, please store it before joining your tour. We are unable to carry extra luggage on the minicoach.

1 x suitcase

1 x small carry-on bag (backpack or handbag)
