Canal boat holidays

Welcome to Riverly !

Forget rigid cruises and packed, minute-by-minute itineraries. Stepping aboard with us is an invitation to slow down, breathe deeply and embrace the freedom of life on the water.

For the 2027 season, we're switching off the screens and following our instincts. Leave your phone at the bottom of your bag and swap notifications for the ever-changing spectacle of nature. Wake to birdsong instead of alarm clocks and rediscover the simple luxury of living at nature's pace - whether you're gliding beneath the ochre cliffs of Saint-Cirq-Lapopie or drifting through the leafy tranquillity of the Canal du Midi.

With Riverly, you're the captain of your own adventure. Every day is yours to shape and the adventure is just as rewarding on land as it is on the water. Moor whenever the mood takes you and set off to discover the treasures waiting along the riverbanks. Every stop offers something new to savour: cycling to Redon's market for freshly made goat's cheese, wandering through the medieval streets and historic towers of Carcassonne, or sampling Minervois wines with a local winemaker in the heart of the Aude.

Whether you're drawn to the elegant châteaux of Burgundy or the wild beauty of the Camargue, the scenery is yours to choose.

Some of the greatest moments are the ones you share. Taking the helm for the first time, working together to navigate a lock, celebrating a perfectly executed manoeuvre, or preparing a meal with the fresh local produce you've discovered that day. As evening falls, conversations linger on deck beneath a sky filled with stars, a view no filter could ever improve.
So, are you ready to cast off?

Why do people love our holidays?

Reconnect with your crew

On board, everyone gets involved: navigating, cooking, discovering new sides of each other. It's a real moment of togetherness, far from daily routines and screens.

Endless activities

Every stop is an adventure: biking, swimming, visiting villages, exploring markets or going for a hike, there's something for everyone.

> "Not a dull moment." Louis, 39.

Go at your own pace

No set schedules, no fixed reservations. You decide when to pause for lunch, a visit, or a quiet night. That kind of freedom is rare these days.

Simple pleasures, naturally

On the water, hospitality comes easy: a helping hand at the dock, a chat with a lock keeper, a shared apéro with boat neighbors, this is the spirit of river cruising: generosity, smiles, and good company.

Because it's easy!

Canal cruising is much simpler than you think. No need to be an experienced sailor, everything is designed to set you off with peace of mind.

NO LICENSE REQUIRED

No license required, accessible to all

Our boats are designed for ease and comfort, even for first-time captains. They cruise at under 10 km/h, are easy to handle, and many come equipped with bow thrusters.

A full briefing before departure

Before you cast off, our team will walk you through how your boat works and show you the basics of piloting. Throughout your cruise, our support team is available every day of the week by phone or in person.

+ All the comfort of home

Everything you need is onboard: sheets, duvets, towels, a fully equipped kitchen, full tanks... Just pack your bags and relax.

+ Safety for everyone

Life jackets, guard rails with safety cables, a first-aid kit: everything is prepared for a worry-free holiday with family or friends.

"Don't worry, you'll be amazed at how easy our Pénichettes® are to handle!"

Jeremy M.
Technical trainer,
Canal du Midi

Make your trip your own

Whether it's docking on the riverbank for a barbecue or heading off on a bike ride, Riverly offers a range of extras to enhance your cruise. We recommend booking them early to ensure availability:

Serenity & Serenity+ packages

To help you cruise with peace of mind, Riverly offers two optional packages*.

	SERENITY PACKAGE	SERENITY+ PACKAGE
Unlimited fuel (excluding air-conditioning and heating consumption)	✓	✓
End-of-stay cleaning package	✓	✓
Bicycle rental	One bicycle	Two bicycle
Partial Deposit Waiver	Silver	Gold
Parking for one vehicle		✓

*In Ireland and Italy, these packages are available but may include different services. Pricing and availability vary depending on the departure base. Depending on parking availability at the base.

Most popular options:

Bike rental: the best way to explore the surroundings. Available at all our bases (adult and children's sizes, baby seats available on request).

Barbecue: enjoy a convivial meal by the water, at lunchtime or in the evening. Available at most bases.

Wi-Fi device rental: to help you save your mobile data.

Final cleaning package: extend the holiday feeling for a few more hours after your departure.

Pet package: your pets are welcome on board, and we ensure thorough cleaning at the end of your stay.

Navigational guide: compulsory on board, this detailed map shows currents, navigation zones, mooring points and nearby services (grocery shops, laundries, etc.). You can order it from Éditions du Breil. A discount code is available upon request.

Paddleboard rental: available only in Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Camargue and in Saintes.

12/220 V converter rental: required to charge laptops and other 220 V devices from the boat's battery.

Early check-in / Late return: available on last-minute request and subject to boat availability.

Parking: at certain departure bases, you can reserve a secure, and in some cases covered, parking space for your vehicle.

Dinghy rental: available only in Ireland and Italy (dinghies from 3.5 to 4.5 m).

Partial Deposit Waiver: this option allows you to reduce the amount of the security deposit required in case of damage (details: see the General Terms and Conditions).

"We chose the Serenity+ package, everything was easy and ready for us when we arrived." Iris, 33.

Sustainable cruising

Each year, Riverly strengthens its commitment to a more sustainable form of river tourism, one that respects both local communities and the natural environment.

Lowering emissions

Since 2025, 100% of Riverly's owned fleet (formerly Locaboat and Nicols) has been running on HVO fuel, a hydrotreated vegetable oil that is renewable and biodegradable. This has helped us cut our CO2 emissions by 92%.
Hybrid propulsion By 2026, 39 of our boats use hybrid engines, and since 2018, we also offer two electric boats in Alsace.

Blue Flag commitment

In 2027, six Riverly bases have earned the Blue Flag certification, a mark of excellence in sustainable tourism.

Protecting the Canal du Midi

Like Locaboat and Nicols before us, Riverly supports replanting efforts along the Canal du Midi. So far, over 21,000 trees have been replanted.

Everyday eco-actions

All boats are cleaned with eco-friendly products and equipped with onboard recycling bins. Selective waste collection is available at every base.

> "Amazing! The kids loved this holiday on the water... and so did the parents!" Lisa, 35.

What is the Blue Flag?

Awarded annually, the "Blue Flag" distinguishes beaches and marinas for their high environmental and social standards. In 2027, only 31 river marinas in France were certified, including six Riverly bases: Corbigny, Joigny, Saint-Martin-sur-Oust, Saintes, Saint-Léger-sur-Dheune and Buzet.

Canal du Midi

Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, discover the medieval city of Carcassonne on the Canal du Midi and taste the wines of Corbières and Minervois.

From Bram

Our Bram base lies near Castelnaudary, a town rich with culinary delights and historic charm. Set off and you'll soon reach beautiful Carcassonne, home to Europe's largest medieval fortress.

From Négra or Port Lauragais

Cruise west to reach Toulouse. Take time to explore the vibrant streets of the "Pink City" before continuing to the fortified village of Montech in the heart of Quercy..

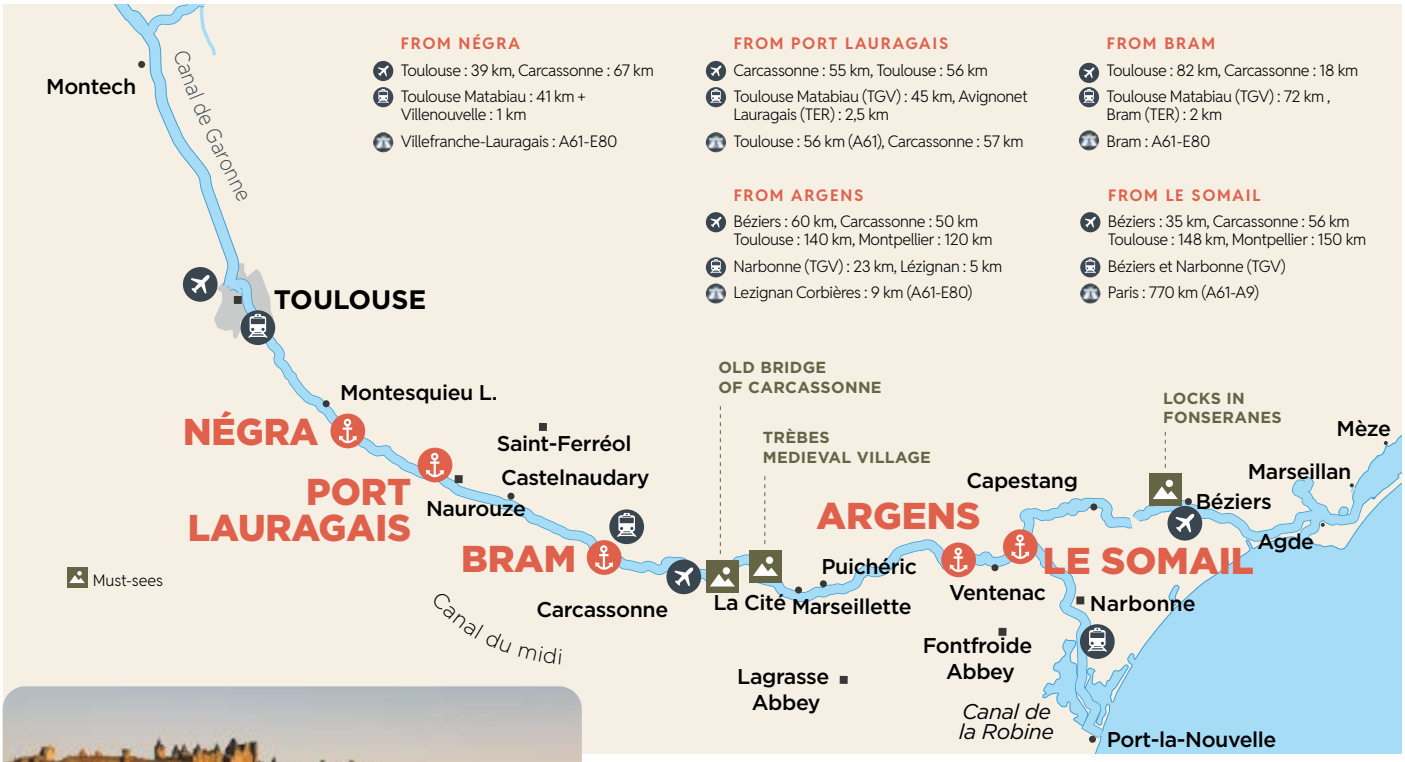

Béziers

From Argens or Le Somail

Make a stop in the medieval villages of Trèbes and Puichéric, then cruise under the arched bridge of Le Somail, renowned for its basket-handle shape, before reaching this charming village, ranked among the Canal du Midi's most beautiful sites. Further on, take the Canal de la Robine toward Narbonne, once a Roman city.

If you choose to continue your cruise toward the Thau Lagoon, you'll reach the spectacular Fonséranes Locks, just a short distance from Béziers, birthplace of Pierre-Paul Riquet, the canal's visionary creator.

Our favourite

In Puicheric, step into the quirky and creative world of Joël Barthes, lock keeper by trade and sculptor by passion, who has turned the L'Aiguille lock into a true open-air museum!

"A wonderful experience. Stunning scenery. An original and exciting holiday." Rob, 29.

*These cruises can be done in both directions.

Camargue

In Camargue, observe the pink flamingos and wild horses, visit Aigues-Mortes and enjoy the seaside resorts.

From Lattes

Located south of Montpellier, Lattes is the perfect starting point to explore the Rhône-à-Sète Canal and the iconic landscapes of the Camargue. Surrounded by lagoons, reed beds, and preserved natural areas, the wildlife and scenery offer a continuous show along the waterways.

Throughout your cruise, enjoy convenient access to the Mediterranean coast and its fine sand beaches, one of the standout highlights of this unique destination. Anchor in Palavas-les-Flots, a lively town where you can reach the Mediterranean Sea in just a few minutes on foot. Then, make your way to Aigues-Mortes, a fortified medieval city founded by Saint-Louis, to explore its world-renowned salt marshes. (Tours must be booked in advance)

For travelers wishing to discover Beaucaire, a designated City of Art and History on the banks of the Rhône River, access from the canal is effortless through a single lock. A charming stopover, it is the perfect place to experience the rich heritage of the Gard region.

From Bellegarde

Cruising from Bellegarde toward Sète and the Thau Lagoon, enjoy an exceptionally smooth and relaxing journey. Whether you are leaving for a weekend getaway or a week-long trip, your route features entirely lock-free navigation.

Let the canal lead you across the Thau Lagoon, a vast inland sea framed by rolling hills, authentic villages and picturesque fishing ports. Its crystal-clear waters are perfect for a refreshing swim, while the Mediterranean beaches just beyond the canal invite you to slow down, relax and soak up the sunshine.

Pause in Bouzigues, renowned for its oysters and shellfish, freshly harvested from the lagoon, before continuing on to Agde. Founded by the ancient Greeks, this fascinating town is known as the "Black Pearl" thanks to its striking historic buildings, all carved from distinctive black volcanic stone.

Did you know?

The pink hue of the salt marshes comes from a microscopic algae called Dunaliella salina, which naturally produces beta-carotene, an orange pigment that gives the water its variations color.

Aigues-Mortes

Charente

Between swimming in the Charente river and discovering Gallo-Roman cities, learn about oenology around Cognac.

From Saintes

With its rich Gallo-Roman heritage, Saintes is the second largest city in the region. From here, cruise from village to village, admiring the red-tiled rooftops and beautiful Romanesque churches in places like Saint-Savinien, Chaniers, and Bourg-Charente.

Make a stop in Saint-Simon, where you can explore the history and heritage of the gabarriers, the traditional riverboatmen. Heading toward Angoulême, you'll arrive in Cognac, the capital of the famous “liqueur of the gods.” Visit its renowned trading houses, elegant mansions, and the historic Récollets convent.

Saintes

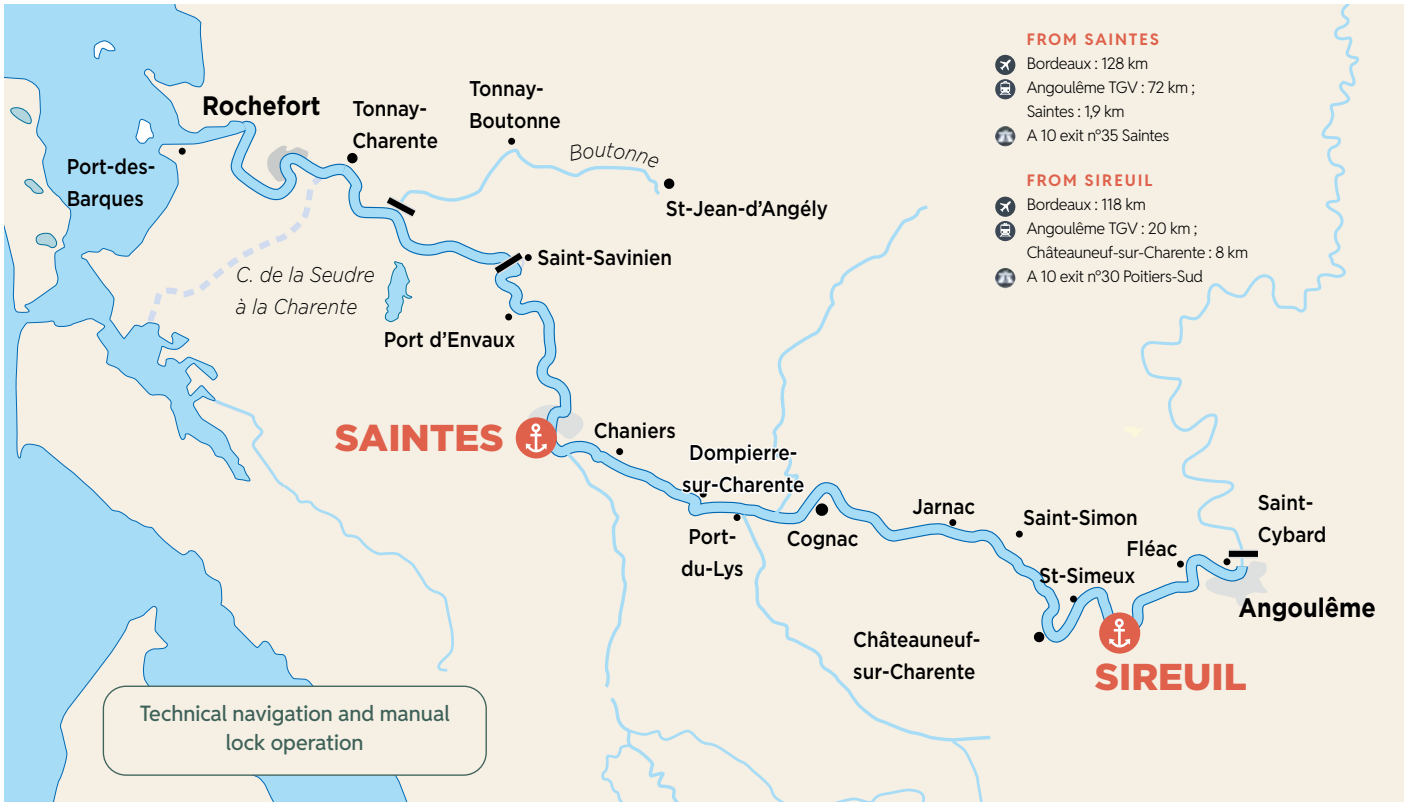

From Sireuil

Set off from Sireuil, a charming departure point nestled in the heart of the vineyards, and drift along the gentle meanders of the Charente. Stop off at a nearby wine estate for an introductory tasting.

Soon, you’ll reach Jarnac, where the grand cognac houses welcome curious visitors, and the flower-lined quays invite you to slow down and stroll.

Angoulême, perched high on its ramparts, is famous for its comic book festival and mural-covered walls. Its lively old town beats to the rhythm of its vibrant cultural life.

Cognac

Our favourite

In Saintes, don't miss the Abbaye aux Dames, a "musical city" offering unique immersive experiences that blend sound and visuals in surprising ways!

South-West

Taste Armagnac and duck from the Southwest, visit old castles or enjoy Walygator Park with your family.

From Buzet sur Baïse

Set off along the Canal de Garonne toward Agen, the renowned capital of prunes, where 2,000 years of history have left a remarkable heritage. Heading in the direction of Toulouse, discover the 11th-century Abbey of Moissac, famous for its extraordinary Romanesque sculptures.

Along the way, treat yourself to local delights: Lot-et-Garonne tomatoes and strawberries, Armagnac, prunes, duck breast, regional wines...

Nérac

If you follow the winding course of the Baïse River, you'll discover an entirely different landscape, greener, with wild, unspoiled banks. In Nérac, wander the old streets of the medieval town and pause on the Pont Vieux for a sweeping view of the Tanners' Quarter. In the former episcopal city of Condom, admire the cathedral, its cloister, the Armagnac museum, and the elegant mansions. From the riverbanks, a network of hiking trails invites you to explore the surrounding countryside.

Did you know?

The Agen aqueduct is the second longest in France. Built from Quercy limestone, it features 23 arches , each 20 metres wide and 10 metres high, spanning a total length of 549 metres.

Lot Valley

Sail to Cahors and the stunning cliffside village of Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, swim and enjoy Cahors wine accompanied by foie gras.

From Cahors

Begin your journey in Cahors, capital of the Lot region, where southern charm, rich heritage and gourmet delights come together. Labelled a "Town and Land of Art and History," Cahors appeals equally to heritage lovers and fans of the French art de vivre. A little further on, Saint-Géry nestles at the foot of towering cliffs dotted with natural caves.

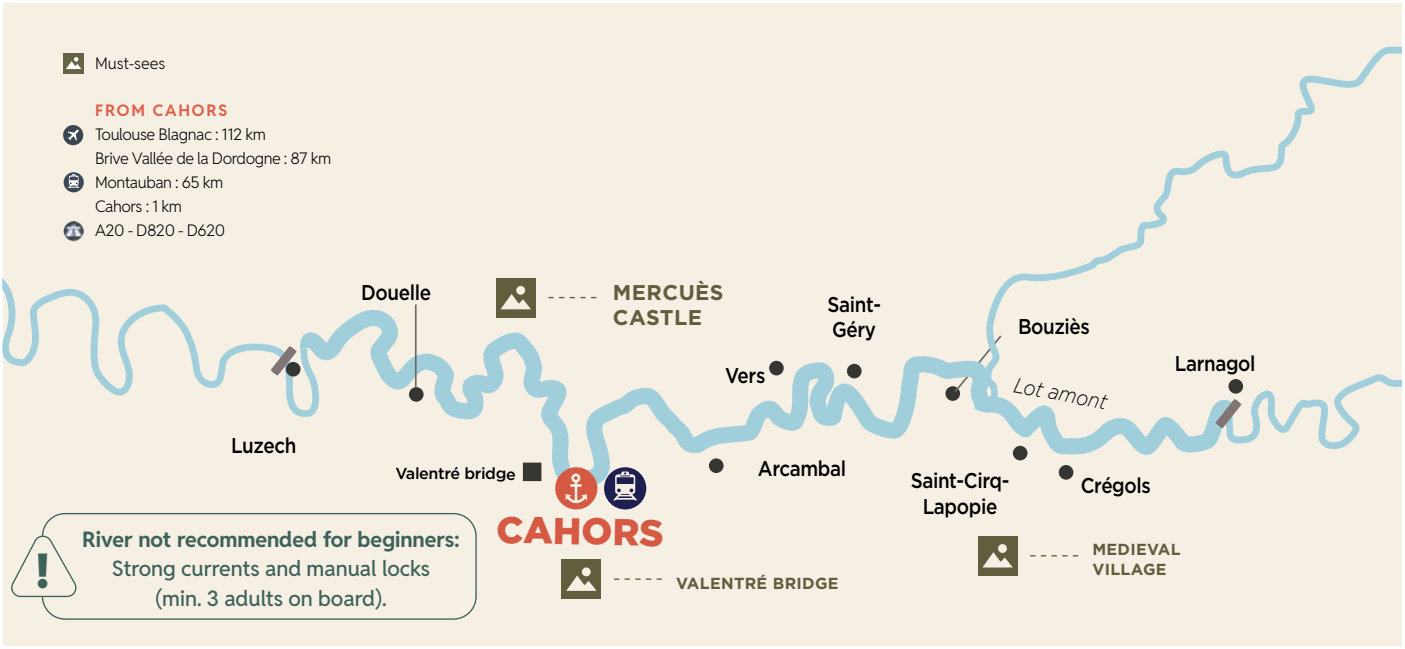

Then comes Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, a gem from the Middle Ages, perched on a rocky outcrop overlooking the Lot, a village best explored on foot.

Le Pont Valentré

Keep your eyes wide open: thanks to its strategic location, Saint-Cirq-Lapopie offers several breathtaking viewpoints.

Continue on to Larnagol, where the 18th-century château, nestled in the heart of the village, opens its doors to visitors. It boasts beautifully tiered gardens and preserved interiors that reflect the essence of French art de vivre.

"An unforgettable journey... a welcoming, experienced team and breathtaking landscapes." James, 50.

Cliffs of Bouziès and Château des Anglais

Towpath in Ganil

Our favourite

The Ganil towpath, carved into the cliffside between Bouziès and Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, runs along the Lot River (3 km round trip). It's a true marvel, where nature and human ingenuity meet!

Burgundy
Nivernais & Loire

In Burgundy Nivernais, explore the medieval city of Auxerre and the Collancelle, and taste the famous wines of Irancy and Chablis.

From Joigny

Located at the crossroads of the Yonne and the Canal de Bourgogne (built in the 18th century), Joigny is the perfect departure point to explore this region rich in heritage and gastronomy. Follow the meanders of the Yonne: landscapes of hedgerow countryside and the Othe forest will guide you to Villeneuve-sur-Yonne, then Sens.

There, you'll discover the splendid Saint-Étienne Cathedral, considered France's first Gothic cathedral. Heading east, you'll reach Auxerre and its famous Chablis and Auxerrois vineyards. Begin your cruise on the Canal du Nivernais, where winemaking villages follow one after another among the vines and churches, like Saint-Bris-le-Vineux and Irancy.

Auxerre

Taking the Canal de Bourgogne, a land of water and forest, reveals some hidden gems. Saint-Florentin is one of them, and its church is a true treasure, featuring remarkable 16th-century sculptures and bas-reliefs, along with 24 stained-glass windows in rare harmony.

Next, stop in Tanlay, where the château stands as one of the finest examples of Renaissance architecture in Burgundy, renowned for its gallery decorated with trompe-l'oeil paintings and frescoes A little further on, the remarkable Ancy-le-Franc palace welcomes visitors with its exceptional collection of mural paintings.

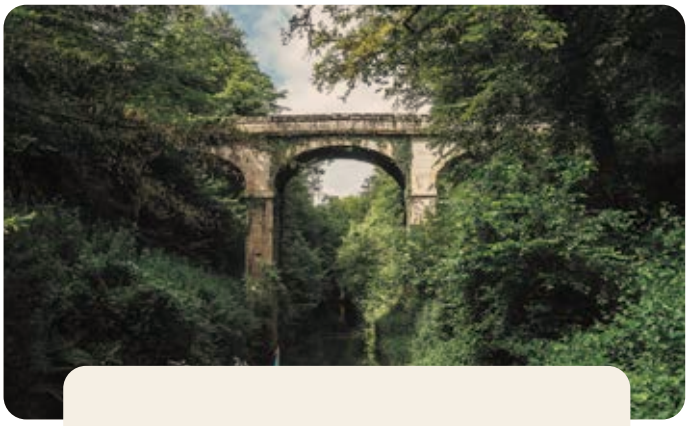

From Corbigny

The Canal du Nivernais is one of the most beautiful river routes in France. In the town of Sardy-lès-Épiry, a spectacular series of 16 locks carries you up or down a 35 km stretch. The three tunnels at Collancelle follow one another and are unquestionably among the canal's most fascinating features.

For a nature-filled break, stop at Baye Lake, which borders the canal in an exceptional ecological setting. Back on the water: in the distance, you'll spot the silhouette of Châtillon-en-Bazois castle.

If you're heading toward Auxerre, make a stop in Tannay to enjoy an underrated local wine: Coteaux-de-Tannay. Continue to Clamecy and admire the flamboyant Gothic style of the Saint-Martin Collegiate Church.

At Châtel-Censoir, in the heart of the Yonne valley, the Collegiate Church of Saint-Potentien offers a peaceful and scenic stop.

Did you know?

The Collancelle locks are part of the oldest section of the Nivernais Canal, dating back to the 18th century.
The Collancelle tunnels, dug through the Morvan hills, are a rare engineering feat. They span three consecutive tunnels, with a total length of 758 m, ranging from 268 m to 212 m.

From Dompierre sur Besbre

Dompierre opens the doors to countless discoveries. You'll cruise along riverbanks lined with castles, abbeys, and charming villages. In Digoin, your boat will pass from the canal to the Canal du Centre, crossing a 19th-century canal bridge, then heading toward Paray-le-Monial. Let yourself be charmed by the sacred beauty of the basilica and the unique Romanesque architecture of southern Burgundy.

Moor at Diou or Beaulon and take a walk through the alleys of the Abbey of Charolles, a beautiful site nestled among the vineyards.

Once in Decize, nicknamed "the island city," your journey continues toward the town of La Machine. Each member of the crew will remember the delicious simplicity of a picnic on the grass.

To the north, the Canal Latéral à la Loire leads you to Sancerre, Apremont-sur-Allier and its flower-filled village, and finally Nevers.

Wines from Sancerre and PYesIly-Fumé go perfectly with a little goat cheese, say, Chavignol crottin.

"Exceptional, fantastic holidays in a lesser-known area. A week in paradise." Amanda, 31.

Pont canal de Briare

From Plagny

From Plagny, your cruise begins in the peacefulness of the Loire countryside. The Canal Latéral à la Loire offers stunning open views of the surrounding hillsides and riverside heritage. Admire the medieval town of Nevers and its ducal palace, and don't miss Briare, with its spectacular canal bridge. At Chevenon, a 13th-century castle awaits in the heart of a peaceful hamlet.

You can also enrich your itinerary with a stop in Sancerre. Perched on its rocky spur, the village offers sweeping views over the Loire Valley and its vineyards. To fully enjoy the experience, sample the region's famous goat cheeses with a glass of Chavignol wine, an ideal pairing to wrap up your cruise.

Burgundy and Saône

In Burgundy, visit Chalon-sur-Saône and the Vauban's citadel, then taste the great wines of Mercurey and Santenay.

From Saint-Léger-Sur-Dheune

Côte de Beaune, Côte Chalonnaise, Santenay, Rully... Along the Canal du Centre, you'll cruise through prestigious vineyards that produce some of the region's finest wines.

Heading up the Saône, you'll sail through peaceful pastureland, with Verdun-sur-Doubs as one of the most picturesque stops.

To the south, make your way to Tournus and wander through it's maze of charming streets with colourful façades, leading to the Saint-Philibert Abbey, a masterpiece of Romanesque art.

You can then detour onto the Seille, a delightful little river lined with protected areas designated as "Natura 2000" sites.

Along the way, stop in Louhans, officially recognised as a "Remarkable Taste Site", to sample the famous Bresse poultry.

In Mâcon, explore the historic centre with its Roman tile roofs and colourful facades, home to the town's key landmarks, including the former cathedral, Vieux Saint-Vincent.

Dole

From Dole

Once the capital of Franche-Comté and birthplace of Pasteur, Dole is charming with its historic centre and picturesque canals. Don't miss the Notre-Dame collegiate church and be sure to taste the finest Comté AOP cheese.

As you cruise along the winding Doubs River, you'll reach Besançon, dominated by Vauban's renowned citadel. A UNESCO World Heritage site, it offers breathtaking views over the city. The atmosphere is lively and cultural, with museums, bustling terraces, and pleasant walks along the riverbanks.

Did you know?

The "climats" of the Burgundy vineyard are precisely defined plots of vines located on the slopes of the Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune, south of Dijon. Each one is unique, shaped by its specific natural conditions, soil, exposure, grape variety, and by centuries of human cultivation. Over time, these varhave been identified based on the wines they produce.

Burgundy
and Franche-Comté

In Burgundy Franche-Comté, cross the St Albin tunnel, navigate in the heart of nature and savour Comté cheese with a Jura wine.

From Scey-sur-Saône

Departing from Scey-sur-Saône, you'll pass through the Saint- Albin tunnel. Stretching 680 meters, its stone walls, soft lighting, and serene silence create a timeless, almost supernatural atmosphere.

Further along, Gray welcomes you with elegant townhouses, a museum housed in a former palace, and scenic riverbanks, perfect for fishing enthusiasts.

Continue your journey to Auxonne, a charming town with a rich military past. Napoleon Bonaparte once stayed here as a young lieutenant. Its arsenal, ramparts, and Gothic church are well worth a visit, just like the peaceful quays, ideal for strolling... or casting a fish line.

Heading upstream, stop at Corre, the last sizeable village before the Canal des Vosges. Surrounded by meadows and forests, this peaceful spot is a paradise for fishing, wild swimming, or cycling along the greenway.

Further along, the ruined castle of Fontenoy-le-Château overlooks the valley, while the village centre invites you to take a gentle stroll. Continue on to Épinal, famed for its illustrated prints, where you'll find a lively town centre, landscaped riverbanks, and the iconic Musée de l'Imagerie.

Ardennes

Immerse yourself in the history of the First World War in the heart of the Ardennes, visit Sedan and Charleville, and explore the great oak forests.

From Pont-à-Bar

Follow the gentle meanders of the Meuse to reach Charleville-Mézières, birthplace of Arthur Rimbaud. Take a seat on one of the many terraces of Place Ducale, often called the most beautiful square in the Ardennes and a true Renaissance gem, and don't miss the Notre-Dame d'Espérance Basilica. Continue your journey to Fumay, the historic slate town.

Cruising farther north brings you into Belgium. Make a stop in Dinant, a colourful riverside town at the foot of a cliff, then on to Namur, where you can visit one of its many museums or explore the cobbled streets, on foot or by bike.

Place Ducale, Charleville-Mézières

To the south, heading toward Reims, the Canal des Ardennes links the Champagne hills to the Meuse. In the lush Montgon Valley, the canal's 26 automatic locks are a joy to navigate, you will feel compelled to stop along the way and admire the peaceful scenery To the east, between Pont-à-Bar and Verdun, discover the Lorraine stretch of the Meuse Valley.

This 100 km route, with 22 locks, takes you far from major roads and dams, immersing you in pristine natural surroundings. Whether you love fishing or cycling, the possibilities are endless.

Germany
Mecklenburg & Brandenburg

In Mecklenburg, swim in the lakes, discover the villages of Röbel and Waren, and visit the castles of Klink and Mirow.

From Fürstenberg

Set course for Strasen, where scenic hiking trails lead you through lush green forests, past lakes and away from main roads.

A stop in Wesenberg invites you to wander through the Skulpturenpark, a park featuring an open-air sculpture exhibition.

A little further on, let yourself be charmed by the town of Neustrelitz and its Baroque castle.

To the south, stop in Himmelpfort, famous not only as the hometown of Father Christmas, but also for its smoked fish and fishing traditions.

With a detour via Lychen, follow the Woblitz River through forests until you reach the large Lychen lake (Großer Lychensee), one of the most beautiful paddling routes in the region.

At the Regow lock, you might spot beavers and otters. Continue on to Templin to discover major historic sites such as its medieval town centre surrounded by partially preserved fortifications.

From Liebenwalde, take the historic Finow Canal and reach one of Europe's most unique engineering feats: the boat lift at Niederfinow.

If you hold a boating license, you can cruise all the way to the lakes of Neuruppin, true natural oases.

Then take the Oder-Havel Canal to reach Berlin and enjoy panoramic views from the Reichstag to Museum Island, before heading into the vibrant neighbourhoods of Kreuzberg and Prenzlauer Berg.

From Lübz

From Lübz, you can set sail towards the great lakes of Müritz and Plauer See to the east. These waters will enchant you with their charming towns, such as Plau and Waren. The Stör-Elde waterway will take you to Schwerin, the regional capital, where a fairy-tale castle sits proudly on an island.

We recommend a detour to Dömitz via the Müritz-Elde waterway, a haven for nature lovers and fishing enthusiasts. Let yourself be lulled by nature and bid goodnight to herons and beavers.

Please note!

From Lübz or Fürstenberg, no boating license is required to navigate between Liebenwalde, Dömitz, and Schwerin (blue zone on the map). Outside this area, a boating license from the captain's country of residence is required.

Germany
Saale Valley, Saxony Anhalt

In the Saale Valley, stroll through the historic towns of Halle and Merseburg, and admire the castles of Wettin and Bernburg between swims.

From Bernburg

Located in the heart of Saxony-Anhalt, Bernburg offers more than one reason to stop before or after your cruise, including a romantic castle with a tower that offers sweeping views over the Saale Valley.

Cruising down the Saale River, make a stop at Wettin Castle, a medieval fortress with a park that's open to visitors.

A bit further on, don't miss the Templer Chapel in Mücheln, an architectural gem and the only nearly intact chapel of the Knights Templar in Germany.

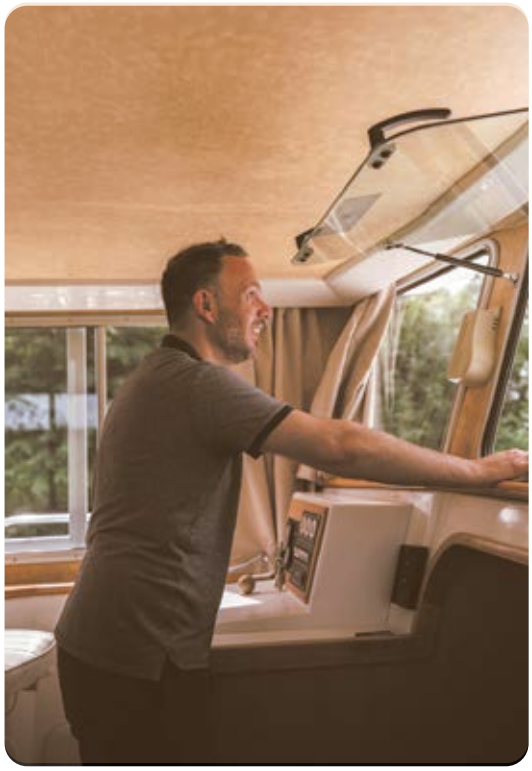

Halle

In Halle, be sure to explore the historic city centre, Giebichenstein Castle, the planetarium, and the zoo.

You can also enjoy a lovely riverside beach for swimming. Another highlight: the charming town of Merseburg, with its Gothic cathedral and impressive castle.

From there, you can continue by bike to Leipzig, Leuna or Bad Dürrenberg.

All the princes and dukes who ruled at Bernburg Castle shared a fondness for towers. The most famous is the Eulenspiegelturm, a 44-metre-high tower said to be guarded by the legendary prankster Till Eulenspiegel.

Holland

In Holland, sail among tulips and windmills, taste Gouda and Edam cheese, and visit Amsterdam and Utrecht.

From Loosdrecht

From our base, follow the Vecht River to reach Utrecht, known as the cultural treasure of Holland. The city is home to numerous museums and grand manor houses.

Stroll along the canal-side terraces and discover traditional brown cafés, darkened over time by the city's many chimneys.

From Loosdrecht, head north toward Amsterdam.

Wander through the Jordaan district, once working-class, now trendy, home to the Anne Frank House.

For a picnic, stop in Vondelpark, the city's green center. Continue on to Lisse to visit Keukenhof and its world-famous tulip gardens.

Gouda

Farther north, in the Zaan region near Edam, your cruise is set to the graceful rhythm of windmills.

From Kerkdriel

Set off from Kerkdriel on a peaceful cruise through the heart of the Dutch countryside, where polders, windmills, and charming historic towns line your route.

From the very start, the scenery immerses you in the authenticity of the Netherlands, with its open landscapes and waterside villages.

Your first stop could be Heusden, a fortified town full of charm.

Lovingly restored, it reveals cobbled streets, gabled houses, and moats running along its ramparts.

It's the perfect place for a relaxed stroll, a coffee on a terrace, and a step back into local history.

Further on, Gouda invites you to a cultural and gourmet break.

Famous for its cheese, of course, but also for its traditional market, Gothic town hall, and stunning stained-glass windows.

A welcoming city, perfect for wandering between canals and artisan boutiques.

Our favourite

In Utrecht, don't hesitate to climb the 465 steps to the top of the Dom Tower. Your reward? A breathtaking panoramic view over the city.

From Chioggia

Departing from the charming port of Chioggia, nestled on a small island in the Venetian Lagoon, follow the channels to reach Pellestrina, a delightful fishing village, then Malamocco, frozen in time, and finally, Venice.

Venice's iconic heritage unfolds before your eyes: St. Mark's Campanile, the Basilica, the Doge's Palace...

Heading north, a string of small islands awaits: Murano, with its master glassmakers; Burano, famous for lace-making; and Torcello, home to the Byzantine-style Basilica of Santa Maria Assunta. On the Sile River, sail toward Treviso to explore its medieval towns.

Burano

And if you follow the Brenta River, between Venice and Padua, visit one of the many Palladian villas scattered along the banks. Cruising from Chioggia to Grado, take time to enjoy some of the Adriatic's most beautiful beaches.

Our favourite

We highly recommend an unforgettable stop on the island of San Francesco del Deserto, a peaceful haven with its Franciscan monastery, rows of cypress trees, and lush vegetable garden. Moor for the night and enjoy a unique view of the island of Burano.

Our partner Rendez-vous Fantasia offers you two free mooring points!

Perfectly located, one in Burano and the other in Vignole, just south of Venice. Departing from the Chioggia base, our partner Rendez-vous Fantasia offers a range of Pénichettes® and Europa models, as well as the New Con Fly: an Italian-built boat, 8.90 meters long, ideal for 2 to 6 people, featuring both interior and exterior steering and two double cabins.

Ireland

In Ireland, fish in the great lakes, explore typical Irish villages and enjoy the warm atmosphere of the pubs.

From Carrick-on-Shannon

Carrick-on-Shannon is the ideal base for those looking to combine scenic walks, charming villages, and a hint of adventure.

This stretch of the Shannon and the Erne Canal blends lush green landscapes, sparkling lakes, and stops full of surprises.

Begin with Ballinamore, a typical, welcoming riverside town, perfect for a peaceful break.

The local market and traditional pubs offer a lovely taste of Irish life Continue to Leitrim, a village perfectly placed for exploring the surroundings by bike or on foot, through hills, forests and winding canals.

Finally, head for the stunning Lough Key Forest Park, a must for nature lovers. With treetop walks, forest trails and mysterious ruins, it's an unforgettable stop for both families and adventurers alike.

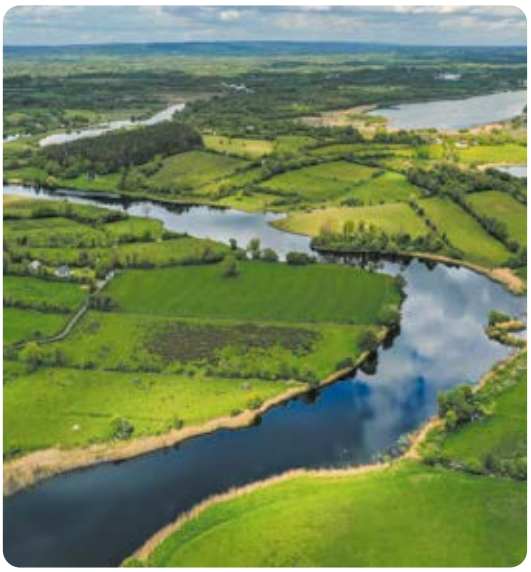

Lough Key

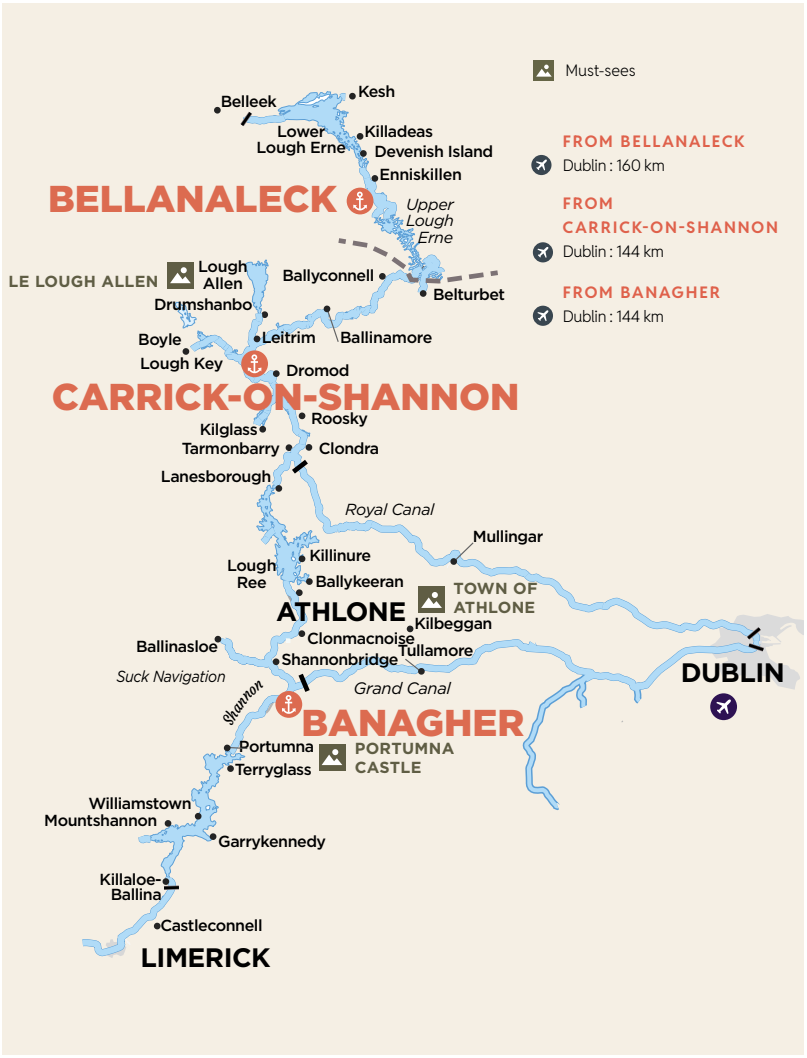

From Banagher

Banagher is a great starting point for exploring the Shannon. Here, Ireland reveals its warm, generous, and characterful side. This cruise is all about variety, with accessible landscapes and diverse, rewarding stops. Cruise upstream to reach Athlone, a lively town at the heart of the island. With its castle, shops, and many restaurants, it's a vibrant and inviting stop, perfect for a bit of shopping or a cultural break. Just beyond, Hodson Bay invites you to swim, cycle, or enjoy a round of golf by the water. The setting is wide open and filled with light, perfect for making the most of the great outdoors.

Finally, wrap up your cruise with a peaceful escape to Killinure, a tranquil bay that's ideal for dropping anchor, birdwatching, or enjoying a delicious onboard meal.

Enniskillen

From Bellanaleck

Set off from Bellanaleck to explore the heart of Northern Ireland, cruising along the majestic Lough Erne. This base is perfect for those seeking peace, nature, and true disconnection.

Make a stop in Enniskillen, the region's largest town, nestled between the upper and lower lakes. With its castle, museums, and lively pubs, it offers a vibrant and cultural break. Then head toward Belleek, renowned for its porcelain factory. Set on the border of County Donegal, the village is a charming gateway to discover unique local craftsmanship.

As you continue westward, the scenery becomes wilder and more authentic, until you reach Ballyconnell, a quiet town tucked between river, hills, and forest. Here, cruising takes on its full meaning: slow, reflective, guided by nature and unexpected encounters.

Hungary

In Hungary, explore Hortobagy National Park, relax in the thermal waters and visit the amazing Tokaj wine cellars.

From Kisköre

Set off from Kisköre on a cruise through lakes, rivers, and protected areas. Lake Tisza, Hungary's largest artificial area of water, offers a surprising backdrop, a paradise for birdwatchers, swimmers, and canoeing enthusiasts alike. Stop in Tiszafüred, the lake's main town, ideal for relaxing in thermal baths, strolling through the centre, or renting a bike to explore the trails around the Hortobágy National Park.

Further down the river, Tiszaújváros has a more urban feel. Known for its sports facilities and modern thermal centre, it's a lively and comfortable stop, perfect for families.

Zemplén

The Great Hortobágy National Park

From Tokaj

Famous for its sweet wines, Tokaj is a charming starting point for a cruise blending rural tranquility and historical heritage. Here, the Tisza and Bodrog rivers meet, creating a unique river landscape framed by vine-covered hills.

Heading north, Sátoraljaújhely welcomes you with mountain backdrops and a host of activities. The Zemplén Adventure Park, with its spectacular zip line, is perfect for thrill-seekers, while others can enjoy forest walks or panoramic views from the castle hill.

On the way back, make a stop in Dombrád, a small riverside village perfect for swimming, riverside barbecues, fishing, or a peaceful nap in the shade... The very spirit of river cruising in Hungary.

Our favourite

From Tokaj, the landscape shifts gently along vineyards listed as UNESCO World Heritage sites.
A serene cruise, where sweet wine and charming villages go hand in hand.

From Amieira Marina

Set sail from Amieira for a gentle cruise on the vast Alqueva Lake, a true inland sea in the heart of the Alentejo. Here, time seems to stand still, surrounded by golden hills, olive groves, and whitewashed villages perched on hilltops. Don't miss Monsaraz, one of Portugal's most beautiful villages. Perched on its rocky spur, it offers breathtaking views over the lake. With cobbled streets, pristine houses, and a medieval castle, the atmosphere is steeped in history and poetry. It's the perfect stop for a sunset stroll… or a terrace dinner featuring delicious local flavours.

Further east, Juromenha reveals the impressive ruins of its ancient fortress, facing the Spanish border. This hidden gem offers breathtaking views over the Guadiana River.

An ideal stop to step out of time, surrounded by silence, nature, and historic stonework.

Sail, moor... feel free

Riverly offers a fleet of over 550 licence-free boats across Europe. Divided into four comfort categories, our boats accommodate 2 to 12 people and offer all the comfort and amenities of a floating holiday home.
No experience or licence is required, they're accessible to everyone and easy to handle.

Two styles, two ways to cruise

At Riverly, we offer two boat styles, choose between the authentic charm of the Pénichette® or the sleek lines of the Cruiser. Whichever comfort level you prefer, from Classic to Premium+, you'll find both boat styles available. Two ways to experience the spirit of river cruising, each with its own style of adventure.

The river cruiser features a streamlined shape inspired by pleasure yachts, giving it a sleek, contemporary look.

The Pénichette® is the true heir to traditional barges, the iconic river-boats. It's instantly recognisable with its classic flat, elongated silhouette.
